C A P. XCVII.

An Act to enable Cities, Towns, and Boroughs of Twenty-five thousand Inhabitants and upwards to appoint Stipendiary Magistrates. [28th July 1863.]

WHEREAS the Execution of the Office of Justice of the Peace within populous Cities and Places in England and Wales has become difficult and burdensome, the great and increasing Extent of the Populations therein, and the difficult and important legal Questions that arise under various Public and Local Acts, creating unreasonable Demands upon the Time of Justices: And whereas there is Reason to believe that such Cities and Places would secure the Services of Stipendiary Magistrates for the more speedy and effectual Execution of the said Office, the better Protection of the Persons and Properties of the Inhabitants, and the Advantage of the Public, if Provision were made by Authority of Parliament for the Appointment of such Magistrates: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

1. This Act may be cited as "The Stipendiary Magistrates Short Title. Act, 1863."

2. In the Construction of this Act the following Words and Expressions shall have the Meanings hereby assigned to them, unless they be repugnant to or inconsistent with the Context or Subject Matter in connexion with which they are used; that is to say,

The Words "City" or "Place" shall mean any City or Place, not a Municipal Corporation, wherein the Public Health Act, Local Government Act, or Local Improvement Act is or shall be in operation, and shall comprise the whole Area to which the Public Health Act, Local Government Act, or Local Improvement Act shall extend, provided there is a Population within such Area of Twenty-five thousand Persons; and provided such Place is not included in any District for which a Stipendiary Magistrate is acting by virtue of any Act of Parliament:

The Expression "Local Board" shall mean the Board appointed under any of such Acts:

The Word "County" shall mean County, Riding, Parts, Liberty, or Division:

Stipendiary Magistrates.

The Word "Jurisdiction" shall include the entire Area of a City or Place to which any of such Acts shall extend :

This Act shall not extend to the City of London, or to any City or Place which is now incorporated or shall be incorporated under the Provisions of the Fifth and Sixth William the Fourth, Chapter Seventy-six, intituled An Act for the Regulation of Municipal Corporations in England and Wales.

Power to Local Board to make a Byelaw as to Salary to be fixed, on which Crown may appoint a Justice.

3. If any Local Board of any City or Place shall, by a Majority of not less than Two Thirds of the Number of such Board, think it expedient that a Stipendiary Magistrate should be appointed to execute the Office of a Justice of the Peace within any City or Place, such Local Board is hereby empowered, by a like Majority, to make a Byelaw or Minute fixing the Amount of the Salary which he is to receive in that Behalf, subject to the Approval of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and such Byelaw or Minute shall be transmitted to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and it shall be lawful thereupon for Her Majesty, if She shall think fit, to appoint a fit Person, being a Barrister-at-Law of not less than Five Years standing, to be, during Her Majesty's Pleasure, Police Magistrate and a Justice of the Peace for such City or Place, and to order that such Sum shall be paid quarterly out of the Local Improvement Rate of such City or Place as will be sufficient to pay such yearly Salary to the said Justice so assigned as aforesaid, not exceeding in the whole the Salary mentioned in such Byelaw or Minute so approved as aforesaid, clear of all Fees or Deductions, as to Her Majesty shall seem fit ; and the Treasurer of such Local Board shall pay to the Justice so assigned as aforesaid, out of the Local Improvement Rates, the Salary so directed to be paid, by Four equal quarterly Payments, and in the same Proportion up to the Time of the Death of such Justice or his ceasing to act under such Assignment as aforesaid : Provided that in every Case of Vacancy of the Office of Police Magistrate in any City or Place aforesaid no new Appointment of Police Magistrate in such City or Place shall be made until the Local Board, in manner herein-before referred to, shall again make Application to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State in that Behalf, and as in the Case of the First Appointment of a Police Magistrate in such City or Place.

Local Board to provide and furnish a Police Office.

4. The Local Board are hereby authorized and required to provide and furnish a fit and suitable Office, to be called the Police Office of the City or Place, for the Purpose of transacting the Business of the Justices of such City or Place, and to pay from Time to Time, out of the Local Improvement Rates, such Sums as may be necessary for providing, upholding, and furnishing, and for the necessary Expenses of such Police Office, provided that no Room in any House licensed as a Victualling House or Alehouse shall be used for the Purposes of any such Police Office.
