ance for the Difference between them, as in the cafes of Ipoiled Stamps, or, if the Difference be confiderable, to repay the fame in Money, at the Differetion of the faid Commissioners. XILL And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, where any Person, on ap-plying for the Probate of a Will or Letters of Administration, shall have estimated the Estate and Esters of the Decealed to be of lefs Value than the fame shall have afterwards proved to be, and shall in confequence have paid too little Stamp Duty thereon, it shall be lawful for the faid Commissioners of Stamps, on Delivery to them of an Affidavit or folemn Affirmation of the Value of the Eftate and Effects of the Decrafed, to caufe the Probate or Letters of Administration to be duly stamped, on Payment of the full Duty which ought to have been originally paid thereon in respect of such Value, and of the further Sum or Penalty payable by Law for stamping Deeds after the Execution thereof, without any Deduction or Allowance of the Stamp Duty originally paid on such Probate or Letters of Administration: Provided always, that if the Application shall be made within Six Calendar Months after the true Value of the Effate and Effects shall be alcertained, and it shall be discovered that too little Duty was at first paid on the Probate or Letters of Administration, and if it shall appear by Affidavit or folemn Affirmation, to the Satisfaction of the faid Commiffioners, that fuch Duty mas paid in confequence of any Miltake or Mifapprehension, or of its not being known at the time that fome particular Part of the Eftate and Effects belonged to the Deceased, and without any Intention of Fraud or to delay the Payment of the full and proper Duty, then it shall be lawful for the faid Commissioners to remit the before mentioned Penalty, and to cause the Probate or Letters of Administration to be duly ftamped, on Paymept only of the Sum which shall be wanting to make up the Duty which ought to have been at first paid thercon. . XLII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in cafes of Letters of Administration on which too little Stamp Duty shall have been paid at first, the faid Commissioners of Stamps shall not cause the fame to be duly stamped in the manner aforefaid, until the Administrator shall have given fuch Security to the Ecclefiaftical Court or Ordinary by whom the Letters of Administration shall have been granted, as ought by Law to have been given on the granting thereof, in cafe the full Value of the Effate and Effects of the Deceased had been then afcertained, and also that the faid Commillioners of Stamps shall yearly or offener transfinit an Account of the Probates and Letters of Administration, upon which the Stamps shall have been rectified in purfuance of this Act, to the feveral Ecclefiaftical Courts by which the fame shall have been granted, together with the Value of the Eftate and Effects of the Decealed, upon which fuch Rectification shall have proceeded.

XLIII. And be it further enacted, That where too little Duty fhall have been paid on any Probate of Letters of Administration, in confequence of any Mistake or Mistapprehension, or of its not being known at the time that fome particular Part of the Effate and Effects belonged to the Deceafed, if any Executor, or Administrator acting under fuch Probate or Letters of Administration shall not, within Six Calendar Months after the paffing of this Ad, or after the Difcovery of the Miftake or Mifapprehention, or of any Effate or Effects not known at the time to have belonged to the Deceased, apply to the faid Commiffioners of Stamps, and pay what shall be wanting to make up the Duty which ought to have been paid at first on fuch Probate or Letters of Administration, he or she shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds, and also a further Sum, at and after the Rate of Ten Pounds per Centum on the Amount of the Sum wanting to make up the proper Duty

XLIV. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the Expiration of Three Calendar Montha from the paffing of this Act, it shall not be lawful for any Ecclesiastical Court or Perfon to call in and revoke, or to accept the Surrender of any Probate or Letters of Administration, on the Ground only of foo high or too low a Stamp Duty having been paid thereon, as heretofore hath been practifed ; and if any Ecclefiafical Court or Perfon shall fo do, the Commissioners of Stamps shall not make any Allowance whatever for the Stamp Duty on the Probate or Letters of Administration which shall be fo annulled.

· XLV. And Whereas it has happened in the cafe of Letters of Administration on which the proper Stallp Duty hath not been paid at first, that certain Debts, Chattels real or other Effects, due or belonging to the Decealed, have been found to be of fuch great Value, that the Administrator hath not been possessed of Money fufficient either of his own or of the Decealed to pay the requisite Stamp Duty, in order to rehuer " Juch Letters of Administration available for the Recovery thereof by Law: And Whereas the Ifke may occur again, and it may also happen that Executors or Persons entitled to take out Letters of Administration may, before obtaining Probate of the Will or Letters of Administration of the Litate and Effects of the Decealed, find fome confiderable Part or Parts of the Eltate and Effects of the Decealed to circumitaticed as not to be immediately got Possession of, and may not have Money infficient either of their own or of the "Decealed to pay the Stamp Duty on the Probate or Letters of Administration which it shall be necessary to obtain ?' Be it therefore further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this AC, it shall be lawful for the faid Commiffioners of Stamps, on fatisfactory Proof of the Facts by Affidavit or folemi Affirmation, in any fuch cafe as aforefaid which may appear to them to require Relief, to caufe the Probate or Letters of Administration to be duly flamped, for denoting the Duty payable or which ought originally to have been paid thereon, and to give Credit for the Duty, either upon Payment of the before mentioned Penalty, of without, in cafes of Probates or Letters of Administration already obtained; and upon which too little Duty shall have been paid, and either with or without Allowance of the Stamp Duty already paid thereon, as the cafe may re-guire, under the Provisions of this Act ; provided in all fuch cafes of Credit that Security be first given by the Executors or Administrators, together with Two or more fufficient Surcties to be approved of by the faid Commife and fuch Probate or Letters of Administration being duly flamped in the manner aforefaid, shall be as valid and available as if the proper Duty had been at first paid thereon, and the fame had been stamped accordingly. ' XLVI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if at the Expiration of the time to be allowed for the Payment of the Duty on fuch Probate or Letters of Administration, it shall appear to the Satisfaction of the faid Commillioners, that the Executor or Administrator to whom fuch Credit shall be given as aforefaid, fhall not have recovered Effects of the Deccafed to an Amount fufficient for the Payment of the Duty, it fhall be lawful for the faid Committioners to give fuch further time for the Payment thereof, and upon fuch Terms and Conditions as they fhall think expedient.

XLVII. Provided alfo, and be it further enacted, That the Probate or Letters of Administration to to Probates, &r. be stamped on Credit as aforefaid, shall be deposited with the faid Commissioners of Stamps, and shall not be delivered up to the Executor or Administrator until Payment of the Duty, together with fuch Intereft as aforefaid, if any fail become due; but the fame shall nevertheles be produced in Evidence by forme Officer of the Commissioners of Stamps, at the Expense of the Executor or Administrator, as Occasion frame XLVIII. And be it further enacted, That the Duty for which Credit shall be given as aforefaid, shall be be a Debt to His Majefty, his Heirs or Socceffors, from the Perfonal Effate of the Deceafed, and thall be paid in preference to and before any other Debt whatfoever due from the fame Eftate ; and if any Executor or Administrator of the Estate of the Deceased shall pay any other Debt in preference thereto, he or the shall not only be charged with and be liable to pay the Duty out of his or her own Eftate, but shall also forfeit the Sum of Five hundred Pounds.

KLIX, And be it further enacted, That if before Payment of the Duty for which Credit shall be given in any fuch cafe as aforefaid, it shall become necessary to take out Letters of Administration de bonis non of the Deccased, it shall also be lawful for the faid Commissioners to cause such Letters of Administration de conis non, to be duly flamped with the particular Stamp provided to be used on Letters of Administration of that Kind, for denoting the Payment of the Duty in respect of the Effects of the Deceased, on some prior Probate or Letters of Administration of the fame Effects, in fuch and the fame manner as if the Duty had been actually paid, upon having the Letters of Administration de bonis non deposited with the faid Commin fioners, and upon having fuch further Security for the Payment of the Duty, as they shall think expedient ; and fuch Letters of Administration shall be as valid and available as if the Duty for which Credit shall be given had been paid.

L. And be it further enacted, in regard to Probate of Wills and Letters of Administration, That where any Part of the Perfonal Eftate which the Deceafed was poffeffed of or entitled to, shall be alleged to have been Truft Property, if the Perfon or Perfons who shall be required to make any Affidavit or Affirmation relating thereto, conformably to the Provisions of the faid Act of the Forty eighth Year of His Majefty's Reign, thall relide out of England, fuch Affidavit or Affirmation thall and may be made before any Perfort duly commiffioned to take Affidavits by the Court of Seffion or Court of Exchequer in Scotland, or before Property. One of His Majefty's Justices of the Peace in Scotland, or before a Master in Chancery, Ordinary or Extraordinary in Ireland, or before any Judge or Civil Magistrate of any other Country or Place where the Party or Parties shall happen to refide; and every such Affidavit or Affirmation shall be as effectual as if the fame had been made before a Mafter in Chancery in England, purfuant to the Directions of the faid laft mentioned Act.

L1. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That where it shall be proved by Oath or proper Vouchers Return of Duty to the Satisfaction of the faid Commiffioners of Stamps, that an Executor or Administrator had paid Debts due and owing from the Deceased, and payable by Law out of his or her Perfonal or Moveable Effate, to fuch an Amount as being deducted from the Amount or Value of the Effate and Effects of the Deceafed, for or claimed in Three in respect of which a Probate or Letters of Administration, or a Compensation of a Testament, Testamentary Years, or Dative, shall have been granted after the Thirty first Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, or which thall be included in any Inventory exhibited and recorded in a Committary Court in Scotland as the Law requires, after that Day, shall reduce the fame to a Sum, which, if it had been the whole grofs Amount or Value of fuch Estate and Effects, would have occasioned a lefs Stamp Duty to be paid on such Probate or Letters of Administration, or Confirmation or Inventory, than shall have been actually paid thereon under and by virtue of this Act, it shall be lawful for the faid Commissioners to return the Difference, provided the fame shall be claimed within Three Years after the Date of fuch Probate or Letters of Administration or Confirmation or the recording of fuch Confirmation as aforefaid; but where by reafon of any Proceeding at Law or in Equity, the Debts due from the Deceased shall not have been afcertained and paid, or the Effects of the Deceased shall not have been recovered and made available, and in confequence thereof the Executor or Administrator shall be prevented from claiming such Return of Duty as aforefaid, within the faid Term of Three Years, it thall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Treasury to allow fuch further time for making the Claim, as may appear to them to be reasonable under the circumstances of the cafe.
