In any contested Cause depending in the said Court of Admiralty the said Court shall have Power, if it shall think fit, to direct a Trial by Jury of any Issue or Issues on any Question or Questions of Fact arising in any such Cause, and the Substance and Form of such Issue or Issues shall be specified by the Judge at the Time of directing the same; and if the Parties differ in drawing such Issue or Issues, it shall be referred to the Judge to settle the same, and such Trial shall be held before the Judge himself, or before some Judge of Assize at Nisi Prius, as to the Judge shall seem meet.

Costs of Issues
in Discretion of Court.

62. The Costs of such Issues as the Judge shall under this Act direct shall be paid by such Party or Parties, Person or Persons, and be taxed by the Registrar of the said Court of Admiralty in such Manner as the said Judge shall direct, and Payment of such Costs shall be enforced in the same Manner as Costs between Party and Party may be enforced in other Proceedings in the said Court.

Power to direct new Trials.

63. The said Court of Admiralty, upon Application to be made within Three Calendar Months after the Trial of any such Issue, by any Party concerned, may grant and direct One or more new Trials of any such Issue, and may order such new Trial to take place in the Manner herein-before directed with regard to the First Trial of such Issue, and may, by Order of the same Court, direct such Costs to be paid as to the said Court shall seem fit, upon any Application for a new Trial or upon any new Trial or Second or other new Trial, and may direct by whom, and to whom, and at what Times and in what Manner such Costs shall be paid.

Granting or refusing new Trials Matter of Appeal.

64. The granting or refusing to grant an Issue or a new Trial of any such Issue may be Matter of Appeal to the Court of Appeal in Chancery in Ireland.

Record of the Issue to be lodged with the Registrar.

65. The Record of each such Issue and of the Verdict therein shall be transmitted by the proper Officer to the Registrar of the said Court of Admiralty; and the Verdict of the Jury upon any such Issue (unless the same shall be set aside) shall be conclusive upon the said Court and upon the Parties, and in all further Proceedings in the Cause in which such Fact is found the said Court shall assume such Fact to be as found by the Jury.

Party in Court may apply for an Order for Inspection by Jurors.

66. Any Party in a Cause in the Court of Admiralty shall be at liberty to apply to the said Court for an Order for the Inspection by the Nautical Assessors or others appointed for the Trial of any Cause, or by the Party himself or his Witnesses, of any Ship or other Personal or Real Property the Inspection of which may be material to the Issue of the Cause, and the Court may make such Order in respect of the Costs arising thereout as to it shall seem fit.

Admission of Documents.

67. Any Party in a Cause in the Court of Admiralty may call on any other Party in the Cause by Notice in Writing to admit any Document, saving all just Exceptions; and in case of Refusal or Neglect so to admit same the Costs of proving the Document shall be paid by the Party so neglecting or refusing, whatever the Result of the Cause may be, unless at the Trial the Judge shall certify that the Refusal to admit was reasonable.

4.—Other

4.—Other Branches of Practice and Procedure.

68. Whenever it shall be made to appear to the Judge that reasonable Efforts have been made to effect personal Service of any Citation, Monition, or other Process issued under Seal of the said Court of Admiralty, and either that the same has come to the Knowledge of the Party thereby cited or monished, or that he wilfully evades Service of the same and has not appeared thereto, the said Judge may order that the Party on whose Behalf the Citation, Monition, or other Process was issued be at liberty to proceed as if personal Service had been effected, subject to such Conditions as to the Judge may seem fit, and all Proceedings thereon shall be as effectual as if personal Service of such Citation, Monition, or other Process had been effected.

Power of Court, when personal Service of Citation has not been effected, to order Parties to proceed.

69. The Service in any Part of the United Kingdom of any Writ of Subpœna ad testificandum or Subpœna duces tecum, issued under Seal of the Court of Admiralty shall be as effectual as if the same had been served in Ireland.

As to Services out of Ireland.

70. All Decrees and Orders of the Court of Admiralty, whereby any Sum of Money, or any Costs, Charges, or Expenses, shall be payable to any Person, shall have the same Effect as Judgments in the Superior Courts of Common Law; and the Persons to whom any such Monies or Costs, Charges, or Expenses shall be payable, shall be deemed Judgment Creditors, and all Powers of enforcing Judgments possessed by the Superior Courts of Common Law or any Judge thereof, with respect to Matters depending in the same Courts, as well against the Ships and Goods arrested as against the Person of the Judgment Debtor, shall be possessed by the said Court of Admiralty with respect to Causes therein depending; and all Remedies at Common Law possessed by Judgment Creditors shall be in like Manner possessed, by Persons to whom any Monies, Costs, Charges, or Expenses are by such Orders or Decrees of the said Court of Admiralty directed to be paid.

the same Time and upon the same Evidence; and if in the principal Cause the Ship of the Defendant has been arrested, or Security given by him to answer Judgment, and in the cross Cause the Ship of the Plaintiff in the principal Cause cannot be arrested, and Security has not been given to answer Judgment therein, the Court may, if it think fit, suspend the Proceedings in the principal Cause until Security has been given to answer Judgment in the cross Cause.

5.—Assessors.

List of Assessors.

73. General Orders may from Time to Time provide for the framing of Lists of Persons of mercantile or nautical Skill and Experience to act as Assessors in the High Court of Admiralty and in the local Courts, and for the Publication of the Lists, and for the Ascertainment of the Cases in which Assessors are to be summoned, and the Mode in which, in each Case, they are to be selected, and their Functions, and the Proceedings in the Cases in which they sit, and their Remuneration; and every Person for the Time being named in any such List shall give his Attendance according to General Orders.

PART IV.—JURISDICTION OF LOCAL COURTS.

Admiralty Jurisdiction of local Courts.

74. The local Courts shall, in the Cases following, have all the like Civil and Maritime Jurisdiction (with all Powers and Authorities relative thereto) as for the Time being belongs to the Court of Admiralty (otherwise than by way of Appeal); that is to say,

- (1.) Where the Amount or Value of the Money or Thing in dispute does not exceed Two hundred Pounds:
- (2.) Where the Amount or Value of the Money or Thing in dispute exceeds Two hundred Pounds, but the Parties agree by a Memorandum signed by them, or by their Attorneys or Agents, that a local Court or Courts specified in the Memorandum shall have Jurisdiction:
- (3.) Where this Act provides for the Retention or Prosecution of a Cause in a local Court:

A Cause in which Jurisdiction is by this Act given to the local Courts is in this Act referred to as an Admiralty Cause.

Local Court for Commencement of Cause.

75. Subject to General Orders, Proceedings in an Admiralty Cause in a local Court shall be commenced as follows:—

- (1.) In the local Court within the Jurisdiction whereof the Ship or Goods to which the Cause relates is or are at the Commencement of the Proceedings:
- (2.) If the foregoing Rule is not applicable, then in the local Court in the District whereof an Action should or might be commenced under the ordinary Jurisdiction of the Court:
- (3.) In any Case in the local Court, or One of the local Courts, which the Parties by a Memorandum signed by them, or by their Attorneys or Agents, agree shall have Jurisdiction.

Transfer from local Court by Order of the Court of Admiralty.

76. The Court of Admiralty, on Motion by any Party to an Admiralty Cause pending in a local Court, may, if it thinks fit, (with or without Service and Hearing of a Summons to the other Party, as it thinks fit,) transfer the Cause to the Court of Admiralty, on such Terms (if any) as to Security for Costs or other Things as the Court thinks fit.

Transfer by Order of County Court.

77. If during the Progress of an Admiralty Cause in a local Court it appears to the Court that the Subject Matter exceeds the Limit in respect of Amount of the Admiralty Jurisdiction of the Court, the Validity of any Order or Decree theretofore made by the Court shall not be thereby affected, but (unless the Parties agree by a Memorandum signed by them or their Attorneys or Agents that the Court shall retain Jurisdiction) the Court shall, by Order, transfer the Cause to the Court of Admiralty, which Court may nevertheless order that the Cause shall be prosecuted in the local Court in which it was commenced, and it shall be thereupon remitted to such local Court and proceeded with therein.

78. If

78. If during the Progress of an Admiralty Cause in a local Court it appears to the Court that the Cause could be more conveniently prosecuted in some other local Court or in the Court of Admiralty, the Court may, by Order, transfer it to such other local Court or to the Court of Admiralty (as the Case may be), and it shall be thereupon prosecuted accordingly.

Transfer to other local Court or Court of Admiralty.

79. If any Person takes Proceedings in the High Court of Admiralty which he might (without Agreement) have taken in a local Court, he shall not be entitled to receive Costs in the High Court of Admiralty in any Event unless the Judge shall otherwise direct, and shall be liable to be condemned in Costs, if the Judge shall so think fit.

Costs of Proceedings in Court of Admiralty.

80. In an Admiralty Cause in a local Court the Judge of such Court shall (in addition to his other Powers and Authorities) have all the like Powers and Authorities as the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty.

Powers and Authorities of Judges of local Courts.

81. The Marshal of the Court of Admiralty shall be deemed an Officer of all and every the local Courts in Admiralty Causes pending in any of those Courts; and it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, if they shall think fit, on the Application of the Judge, to award to the said Marshal by way of Remuneration for the Duties by this Section imposed upon him such annual or other Sum as they shall deem reasonable, and such Sum shall be paid out of the Funds which Parliament shall provide for that Purpose.

Marshal, &c. to act for local Courts.

82. A Scale of Costs and Charges in Admiralty Causes in the local Courts shall be prescribed by General Orders.

Scale of Costs in local Courts.

83. For the Execution of any Decree or Order of a local Court in an Admiralty Cause the Court may order, and the Clerk of the Peace on such Order may issue, and any Officer of the said Court may execute, any Writ or Warrant of Arrest, Possession, or Execution, or other Process.

Execution of Decrees, &c.

84. It shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland in Council, from Time to Time, by Order in Council, made at any Time after the passing of this Act, to declare that the Recorder of any Borough Court, or the Chairman of any Court of any Quarter Sessions therein, and not herein-before specified, shall have Jurisdiction in Admiralty Causes, which Recorder or Chairman shall have Jurisdiction accordingly, and to assign to each such Court as its District for Admiralty Causes any Part or Parts of any One or more District or Districts in which such Court shall (independently of this Act) have Jurisdiction, and in any such Case to prescribe the Places and Times at which local Courts for Admiralty Causes shall be holden.

Appointment of special Courts of Quarter Sessions for Admiralty Jurisdiction.

85. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, if they shall think fit, with the Consent of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, to award to the Recorders of the Boroughs of Cork and Belfast, as Remuneration for the additional Duty which they may respectively have to perform by virtue of this Act, such annual or other Sums as they shall deem reasonable; such Sums shall be paid out of the Funds which Parliament shall provide for the Purpose.

Remuneration to Recorders of Cork and Belfast.

86. When, under any such Order in Council as aforesaid, Jurisdiction in Admiralty Causes shall be given to any Recorder of a Borough or Chairman of a County, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, if they shall think fit, with the Consent of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, to award such annual or other Sum as they shall deem reasonable to such Recorder or Chairman by way of Remuneration for the additional Duty which he may have to perform in consequence of such Order, and such Sum shall be paid out of the Funds which Parliament shall provide for that Purpose.

Provision for Remuneration of other Recorders and Chairmen.

PART V.—APPEALS.

- 87. An Appeal shall lie to the High Court of Admiralty from the final Decree, Order, or Decision of a local Court in an Admiralty Cause, and, by Permission of the Judge of the local Court, from any interlocutory Decree, Order, or Decision therein, subject to such Provisions respecting Notice of Appeal, Deposit or other Security for Costs, and other Matters, as General Orders shall direct.
- 88. The Time for so appealing shall be limited to Fourteen Days from the Date of the Decree, Order, or Decision appealed from; and an Appeal shall not be allowed unless the Appeal is lodged in the Registry of the High Court of Admiralty within that Time, subject to this Provision,—that the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty may, if he think fit, allow an Appeal to be prosecuted notwithstanding that the Appeal has not been lodged within that Time.
- 89. Provided, That such an Appeal shall not lie if before or after the Decree, Order, or Decision is made or given the Parties agree, by a Memorandum signed by them or by their Attorneys or Agents, that the Decree, Order, or Decision shall be final; and any such Agreement need not be stamped, except in respect of any Fee imposed by General Orders.
- 90. From and after the Commencement of this Act no Appeal shall be brought from the Court of Admiralty to Her Majesty's Delegates in the Court of Chancery in Ireland, commonly called the High Court of Delegates in Ireland.
- 91. Any Person considering himself aggrieved by any final or interlocutory Sentence, Decree, or Order of the Court of Admiralty, except a Sentence, Decree, or Order made by the Judge upon an Appeal from a local Court, may appeal therefrom to the Court of Appeal in Chancery in Ireland, and from thence to Her Majesty in Council: Provided nevertheless, that any such Appeal from the Court of Admiralty may be brought to Her Majesty in Council in the first instance without interposing any Appeal to the said Court of Appeal in Chancery; and provided always, that no Appeal from any interlocutory Order of the Court of Admiralty shall be made without Leave of the Court of Admiralty first obtained, but on the Hearing of an Appeal from any final Sentence or Decree all interlocutory Orders complained of shall be considered as under Appeal as well as the final Decree.
- 92. From and after the Commencement of this Act, save as to any Appeal that shall be then pending, all the Jurisdiction which is now possessed and exercised by the High Court of Delegates in Ireland, or which, but for the passing of this Act, would be possessed and exercised by that Court, in respect of Appeals from the said Court of Admiralty, and all Powers and Authorities incident to such Jurisdiction, now exercised and performed by the said High Court of Delegates, shall, subject to the Provisions of this Act, be exercised and performed by the said Court of Appeal in Chancery in relation to Appeals under this Act.
- 93. The Lord Chancellor and Lord Justice of Appeal in Ireland for the Time being may from Time to Time make, rescind, and vary General Orders for regulating the Form and Mode of Procedure on Appeals from the Court of Admiralty to the said Court of Appeal in Chancery, and for regulating the Costs, Fees, and Allowances to be paid or allowed to Solicitors or other Persons respecting such Appeals; and such Orders shall take effect at such Times as may be therein specified, or in default of such Specification from the Time of making thereof.
- 94. The said Court of Appeal in Chancery shall, on the Hearing of any Appeal from the Court of Admiralty, have Power to call to its Assistance One or more Nautical Assessors, to be selected by the said Court of Appeal; and the Advice and Opinion of such Nautical Assessor or Assessors may be taken by the said Court in the same Manner, upon such Questions, and for such Objects as the Advice and Opinion of any Nautical Assessor now is or may be taken by the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council in Appeals brought brought from the High Court of Admiralty of England; and the said Court of Appeal in Chancery shall have Power to direct what Remuneration shall be paid to each such Assessor for his Attendance on the Hearing of any such Appeal, and such Remuneration shall be paid accordingly by such of the Parties to the Appeal as the said Court of Appeal shall in that Behalf direct.

95. In any Appeal which shall come before the said Court of Appeal in Chancery by virtue of this Act the said Court may examine Witnesses by Word of Mouth (and either before or after Examination by Deposition), or direct that the Depositions of any Witness shall be taken in Writing by the Registrar, or by such other Person or Persons and in such Manner as the said Court shall direct.

Evidence in the Court of Appeal in Chancery may be taken vivâ voce or upon written Depositions.

96. In any Appeal which shall come before the said Court of Appeal in Chancery by virtue of this Act the said Court may direct that such Witnesses shall be examined or re-examined, and as to such Facts, as to the said Court shall seem fit, notwithstanding any such Witness may not have been examined, or no Evidence may have been given on any such Facts in a previous Stage of the Matter, and may remit the Cause to the Court of Admiralty, and at the same Time direct that the said Court of Admiralty shall re-hear such Cause, in such Form, and either generally or upon certain Points only, and upon such Re-hearing take such additional Evidence, though before rejected, or reject such Evidence before admitted, as the Court of Appeal in Chancery shall direct; and further, on any such remitting or otherwise, the Court of Appeal in Chancery may direct One or more Issue or Issues to be tried in any Court in any of Her Majesty's Dominions abroad for any Purpose for which such Issue or Issues shall to the said Court of Appeal in Chancery seem proper.

Court of Appeal in Chancery may order any particular Witness to be examined, and as to any particular Facts, and may remit the Cause for Re-hearing.

97. Every Witness who shall be so examined in pursuance of this Act shall give his or her Evidence upon Oath, or, in Cases in which an Affirmation is allowed by Law to be substituted for an Oath, upon solemn Affirmation, which Oath and Affirmation respectively shall be administered by the Court of Appeal in Chancery, and the Registrar thereof, or such other Person and Persons as the said Court shall direct; and every such Witness who shall wilfully swear or affirm falsely shall be deemed guilty of Perjury, and shall be punished accordingly.

Witnesses to be examined on Oath, and to be liable to Punishment for Perjury.

98. The said Court of Appeal in Chancery may direct One or more Issue or Issues to be tried in any Court of Common Law, and either before a Judge of Assize, or at the Sittings for the Trial of Issues in Dublin, and either by a Special or Common Jury, in like Manner and for the same Purpose as is now done by the High Court of Chancery of Ireland.

Court of Appeal in Chancery may direct an Issue to try any Fact.

99. It shall be in the Discretion of the said Court of Appeal in Chancery to direct that on the Trial of any Issue directed by it as aforesaid the Depositions already taken of any Witness who shall have died, or who shall be incapable to give oral Testimony, shall be received in Evidence; and further, that such Deeds, Evidences, and Writings shall be produced, and that such Facts shall be admitted, as to the said Court of Appeal in Chancery shall seem fit.

Court of Appeal in Chancery may direct Depositions to be read at Trial of the Issue;

100. The said Court of Appeal in Chancery may make such and the like Orders respecting the Admission of Persons, whether Parties or others, to be examined as Witnesses upon the Trial of any such Issue directed by it as aforesaid, as the Lord Chancellor or the Court of Chancery of Ireland has been used to make respecting the Admission of Witnesses upon the Trial of Issues directed by the Lord Chancellor or the Court of Chancery in Ireland.

may make such Orders as to Admission of Evidence as are made by Court of Chancery;

101. The said Court of Appeal in Chancery may direct One or more new Trial or Trials of any Issue, either generally or upon certain Points only; and in case any Witness examined at a former Trial of the same Issue shall have died, or have become incapable to repeat his Testimony, the said Court of Appeal in Chancery may direct that parol Evidence of the Testimony of such Witness shall be received.

and may direct new Trials of Issues.

102. All

Powers, &c. of 13 G. 3. c. 63. and 1 W. 4. c. 22. as to Examination of Witnesses extended to Court of Appeal in Chancery. Costs to be in the Discretion of Court of Appeal in Chancery.

102. All the Powers and Provisions contained in the Thirteenth of George the Third, Chapter Sixty-three, and First of William the Fourth, Chapter Twenty-two, for the Examination of Witnesses, shall, with reference to Cases of Appeal from the said Court of Admiralty, extend to and be exercised by the said Court of Appeal in Chancery, as if that Court had been therein named as One of His Majesty's Courts of Law at Westminster.

103. The Costs incurred in the Prosecution of any Appeal preferred to the said Court of Appeal in Chancery, under the Provisions of this Act, and of such Issues as the same Court shall under this Act direct, shall be paid by such Party or Parties, Person or Persons, and be taxed by the Registrar, or such other Person or Persons to be appointed by the same Court, and in such Manner as the said Court shall direct.

Attendance of Witnesses and Production of Papers may be enforced by Subpœna.

104. The Court of Appeal in Chancery may require the Attendance of any Witnesses, and the Production of any Deeds, Evidences, or Writings, by Writ, to be issued by the said Court, in such and the same Form, or as nearly thereto as may be, as that in which a Writ of Subpœna ad testificandum or of Subpœna duces tecum is now issued by Her Majesty's Court of Queen's Bench at Dublin; and every Person disobeying any such Writ so to be issued by the said Court of Appeal in Chancery shall be considered as in Contempt of the same Court, and shall also be liable to such and the same Penalties and Consequences as if such Writ had issued out of the said Court of Queen's Bench, and may be sued for such Penalties in the same Court.

The Privy Council empowered to determine Appeals under this Act.

105. All the Provisions contained in the several Acts for the Time being in force relating to the Appellate Jurisdiction of Her Majesty's Privy Council in England, and the Administration of Justice therein, shall, so far as the same shall be applicable and consistent with the Provisions of this Act, be deemed to extend to Appeals preferred to Her Majesty in Council by virtue of the Provisions of this Act; and the Proceedings on all such Appeals shall, so far as practicable, and consistent with the Provisions of this Act, be proceeded with in the same Manner as Appeals from the High Court of Admiralty of England.

Bail given in the Court of Admiralty good in the Court of Appeal.

106. In any Cause in the said Court of Admiralty Bail may be taken to answer the Judgment as well of the said Court as of the Court of Appeal, and the said Court of Admiralty may withhold the Release of any Property under its Arrest until such Bail has been given; and in any Appeal from any Decree or Order of the Court of Admiralty, or of the said Court of Appeal in Chancery in any Appeal thereto, preferred by virtue of this Act, the Court to which such Appeal shall be brought may make and enforce its Order against the Surety or Sureties who may have signed any such Bail Bond, in the same Manner as if the Bail had been given in the Court of Appeal.

Certified Notes of Evidence may be admitted on Appeal.

107. In any Appeal preferred by virtue of this Act the Notes of Evidence taken, as herein-before provided, by or under the Direction of the Judge of the Court of Admiralty, shall be certified by the Judge to the Court to which such Appeal is preferred, and shall be admitted to prove the oral Evidence given in the Court of Admiralty; and no Evidence shall be admitted on such Appeal to contradict the Notes of Evidence so taken and certified as aforesaid: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall enure to prevent the Court of Appeal in Chancery or the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council from directing Witnesses to be examined and re-examined upon such Facts as to the said Court of Appeal in Chancery or the Judicial Committee shall seem fit.

Notes of Evidence on Appeal to Court of Appeal in Chancery to be certified to the Privy Council.

108. In any Appeal preferred by virtue of this Act from the said Court of Appeal in Chancery, the Notes of Evidence (if any) taken by or under the Direction of that Court shall be certified by the Lord Chancellor to the said Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, and no Evidence shall be admitted on such Appeal to contradict the Notes of Evidence so taken and certified as last aforesaid; but nothing herein contained shall enure to prevent the said Judicial Committee from directing Witnesses to be examined and re-examined upon such Facts as to the said Judicial Committee shall seem fit.

109. An

109. An Appeal shall lie from a Decree, Order, or Decision of the High Court of Admiralty made or given on Appeal from a local Court, in like Cases and in like Manner as Appeals lie from the High Court of Admiralty in Causes originally instituted therein.

Appeal from an Order, &c. of the Court made on an Appeal to it.

110. Where in an Appeal under this Act the Appellant is unsuccessful, he shall pay the Costs of the Appeal, unless the Appellate Court shall otherwise direct.

Costs of Appeal.

111. The Time for appealing from any Decree or Order of the Court of Admiralty in any Cause instituted after the passing of this Act (under this Act or otherwise) shall be limited to Two Months from the Date of the Decree or Order appealed from, and an Appeal shall not be allowed unless the Petition of Appeal is lodged in the Registry of the Court of Admiralty and the Court of Appeal within that Time; subject to the Provision, that it shall be lawful for the Court of Appeal to which such Appeal shall be made to allow, under special Circumstances, the Appeal to be prosecuted notwithstanding that the Petition of Appeal has not been lodged within that Time.

Limit of Time for all Appeals from Court of Admiralty.

PART VI.—STAMPS SUBSTITUTED INSTEAD OF FEES.

112. The Lord Chancellor, with the Consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, may by Order from Time to Time increase, diminish, alter, or abolish all or any of the Fees payable in relation to Proceedings in the Court of Admiralty, and may substitute One or more Fee or Fees in lieu thereof.

Lord Chancellor may, with Consent of the Treasury, vary, alter, or abolish Fees.

113. From and after the Commencement of this Act, no Officer of the said Court of Admiralty shall be entitled to or take for his own Use or Benefit, directly or indirectly, any Fee or Emolument whatsoever, save the Salary to which he shall be entitled by virtue of this Act.

From Commencement of Act, Officers not to receive Fees on their own Account.

114. From and after the Commencement of this Act, the Fees payable in relation to Proceedings in the Court of Admiralty and the local Courts aforesaid shall not be received in Money, but shall be collected by means of Stamps.

From Commencement of Act Fees to be collected by Stamps.

115. The Fees to be collected by means of Stamps under this Act shall be deemed Stamp Duties, and shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, and the Money received for such Stamps shall, under the Direction of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, be carried into and shall form Part of the Consolidated Fund.

Such Fees to be Stamp Duties.

116. The Stamps to be used under this Act shall be impressed or adhesive, as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall from Time to Time direct.

Stamps to be impressed or adhesive, as the Treasury shall direct.

117. The Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, with the Concurrence of the Judge of the Court of Admiralty, may from Time to Time make such Rules as may seem fit for regulating the Use of Stamps under this Act, and particularly for prescribing the Application thereof to Documents from Time to Time in use or required to be used for the Purposes of such Stamps, and for ensuring the proper Cancellation of adhesive Stamps.

The Treasury, with Concurrence of Judge, may make Rules regulating Use of Stamps, &c.

118. No Document which by any Order as aforesaid ought to have had a Stamp impressed thereon or affixed thereto shall be received or filed or be used in relation to any Proceeding in the Court of Admiralty, or be of any Validity for any Purpose whatsoever, unless or until the same shall have a Stamp impressed thereon or affixed thereto in the Manner directed by such Order: Provided always, that if at any Time it shall appear that any such Document which ought to have had a Stamp impressed thereon or affixed thereto has through Mistake or Inadvertence been received or filed or used without having such Stamp impressed thereon or affixed thereto, the Judge may, if he shall think fit, order that a Stamp not exceeding in Value Four Times the Amount of such original Stamp shall be impressed thereon or affixed thereto, and thereupon, when the proper Stamp shall, in compliance with such Order, have been impressed on such Document or affixed affixed thereto, such Document and every Proceeding in reference thereto shall be as valid and effectual as if such Stamp had been impressed thereon or affixed thereto in the first instance.

No Document to be received or used unless stamped.

Officers guilty of Fraud or wilful Neglect in relation to Stamps liable to be dismissed.

119. If any Officer of the Court of Admiralty or other Person shall do or commit or connive at any fraudulent Act or Practice in relation to any Stamp to be used under the Provisions of this Act, or to any Fee or Sum of Money to be collected or which ought to be collected by means of any such Stamp, or if any such Officer or Person shall be guilty of any wilful Act, Neglect, or Omission in relation to any such Stamp or Fee as aforesaid, whereby any Fee or Sum of Money which ought to be collected shall be lost or the Payment thereof evaded, any such Officer or Person so offending may be dismissed from his Office or Employment by the Judge of the said Court of Admiralty.

Compensation to the Registrar of the Court of Delegates.

120. 'And whereas Joseph Hamilton Esquire, the present Registrar of Appeals and Provocations Spiritual in Ireland, will suffer Loss in his said Office by the Abolition of Appeals from the Court of Admiralty to the High Court of Delegates in Ireland, and the said Joseph Hamilton has held his said Office for upwards of Forty-three Years: There shall be paid to the said Joseph Hamilton by way of Compensation such Annuity as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may deem just and proper, not exceeding the Average of the net Profits of his said Office from Admiralty Appeals on an Average for the Five Years ending Thirty-first December One thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, to commence from the Day when this Act shall come into operation, and to continue during his Life.'

Compensation to Proctors.

121. 'Whereas the Number of Persons entitled to practise as Proctors of the said Court of Admiralty does not exceed Six, and the Fees or Emoluments of the said Proctors may be damaged by the Abolition of the exclusive Rights and Privileges which they have hitherto enjoyed as such Proctors in the said Court: Be it enacted, That the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by Examination on Oath or otherwise, which Oath they are hereby authorized to administer, may inquire into, and may, by the Production of such Evidence as they shall think fit to require, including the Returns for the Assessment of Income Tax made by such Proctors before the passing of this Act, and the Receipts for Payment of such Tax, ascertain and absolutely determine the net annual Amount of the Profits arising from the Transaction of Business by Proctors on Matters and Causes in such Admiralty Court on an Average of Five Years immediately preceding the Commencement of this Act, and shall award to each and every such Proctor a Sum of Money or annual Payment during the Term of his natural Life, not exceeding in Value One Half of the net Profits derived by such Proctor in respect of Matters and Causes in the said Court of Admiralty, upon the said Average of Five Years immediately preceding the Commencement of this Act: Provided, that if any such Person shall be at any Time appointed to any Office under this Act, or any other Office of Profit of a like Nature, or any other Employment as an established Civil Servant of the State, he shall during his Continuance in any such Office or Employment be entitled to receive such Part only, if any, of the annual Sum awarded to him under this Clause as shall with the Salary and Profits of such Office or Employment make an annual Sum equal to the annual Sum so awarded to him: Provided also, that the Portion of the Business of the Queen's Proctor which he discharges for Her Majesty shall not be taken into account in estimating his Compensation under this Clause.

Compensation to Proctors in Partnership.

122. 'And whereas divers Proctors practising in the said Court of Admiralty now are or may at the Commencement of this Act be associated together in Partnership: Be it therefore enacted, That in all such Cases the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall inquire into and ascertain the Terms or Conditions of such Partnerships, and shall absolutely determine and award Compensation in respect thereof, as hereinbefore provided, to each of such Partnerships, in like Manner as if all the Emoluments thereof had been derived by One Individual, and shall apportion such Compensation among the Members of each such Partnership, with or without Benefit of Survivorship, regard being had to the existing Terms and Conditions of the same.

123. Except

123. Except as is herein-before expressly provided, the several Retiring Pensions and Compensations granted by this Act shall be paid by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury out of such Funds as may be provided by Parliament for that Purpose.

Retiring Pensions, &c. to be paid out of Monies provided by Parliament.
Extent of Act.

124. This Act shall apply to Ireland only.

C A P. CXV.

An Act to remove Disqualifications of Justices of the Peace in certain Cases.
[20th August 1867.]

IN order that Justices of the Peace may act in the Execution of Acts in some Cases in which they now are incapable of so acting, be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows; (that is to say,)

1. This Act may for all Purposes be cited as "Justices of the Peace Act, 1867."

Short Title.

2. A Justice of the Peace shall not be incapable of acting as a Justice at any Petty or Special or General or Quarter Sessions on the Trial of an Offence arising under an Act to be put in execution by a Municipal Corporation, or a Local Board of Health, or Improvement Commissioners, or Trustees, or any other Local Authority, by reason only of—

Justices not incapable of acting in execution of Acts in Cases specified.

(a.) His being as One of several Ratepayers, or as One of any other Class of Persons liable in common with the others to contribute to or to be benefited by any Fund to the Account of which the Penalty payable in respect of such Offence is directed to be carried or of which it will form Part, or to contribute to any Rate or Expenses in diminution of which such Penalty will go.

C A P. CXVI.

An Act to amend the Act of the Twenty-eighth and Twenty-ninth Victoria, Chapter Fifty, for regulating the keeping of Dogs, and for the Protection of Sheep and other Property from Dogs, in Ireland. [20th August 1867.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Act of the Twenty-eighth and Twenty-ninth Victoria, Chapter Fifty:

28 & 29 Vict. c. 50.

Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

1. That the Word "Borough" in the said Act shall apply to all Towns in Ireland which are subject to the Provisions of the Towns Improvement Act, Ireland, and to all Townships having Commissioners under Local Acts, or under the Provisions of the Act of the Ninth Year of George the Fourth, Chapter Eighty-two, intituled An Act for the lighting, cleansing, and watching of Cities, Towns Corporate, and Market Towns in Ireland in certain Cases, and that the Registrar shall pay over to the Treasurer of such Town and Township the surplus Monies arising from the Sale of Licences to Persons resident within
